Notes from the weekly planning call. The team agreed to move the review of the supplier shortlist to the following week so that the two remaining quotations can be compared on the same basis. Facilities will circulate the updated floor plan once the landlord confirms the handover window, and the training room booking stays provisional until the headcount is known. Nothing further was raised and the call closed early.